

EMPLOYEE EDUCATION

What is Employee Education? American workers today are faced with a growing number of retirement plan options, greater diversity among health care plans, and increasing concerns about retirement and how to plan prudently for it. More than ever they need access to educational programming that can help answer their questions while providing the employer with yet another exciting employee benefit. CIA Financial Group is an independent provider of a wide range of financial services. Because we are an independent, third-party provider, we are able to provide your employee with objective information on the issue that is most important to them, their families, and their retirement.

CIA Financial Group proudly offers FREE seminars on the following issues:

- 401(k) Management
- Maximizing Health Benefits
- Financial Planning

Why can you trust CIA Financial Group to provide you with the best possible Employee Education Seminars?

- As an independent provider of financial services, we are objective.
- We can analyze your current Employee Benefits offerings and develop a seminar to help communicate those options to your employees.
- The CIA Financial Group representative conducting the seminar is accessible by your employees to have any questions answered.
- Employee education seminars are FREE to all companies utilizing CIA Financial Group for any Employee Benefits Service.
- We will schedule in advance a series of seminars to help your employees learn how to maximize the benefits available to them.
