

COMPREHENSIVE FINANCIAL ANALYSIS

What is Comprehensive Financial Analysis? When you travel you need to know where you are and where you want to be. Understanding the route you must travel to reach your desired destination is as important as having the mode of transportation to get there. Your financial goals are no different. To work towards the desired outcome you must first understand your present financial situation. CIA Financial Group offers investors a Comprehensive Financial Analysis which seeks to serve as your road map for working towards your desired financial destination. We first perform an extensive review of your current financial situation and provide you with projections for future need in retirement based on many factors, including inflation adjusted cost of living factors, college planning, travel, and major purchases. The analysis is delivered with a projection of additional annual investment needs and tax saving strategies.
