CIA Financial Group Earns Honors From Top Financial Company: Shelby Township-based financial services provider recognized for production

Shelby Township, MI (April 26, 2006) – CIA Financial Group continues to build upon its reputation as a leading provider of financial services in the Greater Detroit-area by being recognized as a Top Three agency partner of The Grange Bank – part of the Grange Mutual Casualty Group. In fact, CIA Financial Group is the largest producer for The Grange Bank nationally.

Through this recognition, CIA Financial Group, a provider of “comprehensive” financial services in Shelby Township, MI, has gained entry into Grange’s “Five Million Dollar Club”. Members of the club receive and award at Grange’s Annual Agency Meetings and earn entry by being total financial service providers and having at least $5 million in business placed with Grange.

“CIA Financial Group prides itself on maintaining an independent status, which means we are capable of identifying the best possible financial opportunities for our clients – without a conflict of interest,” said Samuel Crudo, president of CIA Financial Group. “Our relationship with Grange is just one of many we maintain in the industry. We look forward to continuing our work with them in years to come.”
