Shelby Township-based financial services provider showing growth in key division
CIA Financial Group Adds Talent To Their Financial Planning and Investment Management Services Department:

Shelby Township, MI (April 4, 2006) – Growing companies are successful in large part to the knowledge and expertise of their professional staff. As the company grows, it becomes even more vital to find talented employees and place them in the right positions to succeed. CIA Financial Group is promoting from within and hiring outside talent to help address their growth in their Financial Planning and Investment Management Services department.

CIA Financial Group, a provider of “comprehensive” financial services in Shelby Township, MI, is pleased to announce the promotion of Holly MacDonald from Administrative Assistant to the role of Associate Planner. Holly has earned the Series 7 and 63 securities licenses, the Life, Health, and Accident licenses, and is currently pursuing the Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC) designation. In her new capacity, Holly will begin working with clients to address their financial needs. She will also be developing programs catering to young women and new families.

“For the two years Holly has been with us she has demonstrated a very high level of professionalism in her approach to working with clients,” said Michael Clancy, CFR, a principal with CIA Financial Group. “We know she will continue to provide our clients with terrific service in her new role.”

The company has also hired Priscilla Hernandez to fill the Administrative Assistant position vacated by the promotion of Holly MacDonald. Priscilla will provide support to the planning staff by preparing vital client paperwork and reports, while working to maintain excellence in client service.

“The hiring of Priscilla is something we are all very excited about within our department,” said Clancy. “She brings such high moral and ethical standards to her new position that she is bound to succeed in this very high-energy, client-centered profession.”
